

Situated in Rochester, close to the regional centres of Bendigo and Echuca, and only two hours from Melbourne, Rochester and Elmore District Health Service (REDHS) is an integrated rural health service.

REDHS provides a broad range of acute, aged, primary and public health programs to a population of approximately 6,500 people in the Campaspe and Bendigo Shires.

The organisation is currently undergoing a full redevelopment program at a cost of $21.7M providing state of the art facilities to the local catchment population, which includes the larger townships of Rochester, Elmore, Lockington, Corop and Colbinabbin. The redevelopment program includes a new Acute Ward with an Accident and Emergency bay, new 30-bed Nursing Home, new Operating Theatre and will include a large Primary Care centre with eleven consulting rooms and two treatment areas.

REDHS "Vision for the Future" Strategic Plan aims to ensure recognition for excellence, high quality and sustainable services through integrated and collaborative working relationships.

Registered Nurse Acute Ward

The Acute Unit at REDHS has been renovated to a state of the art facility which caters for the needs of the regional community. The busy unit comprises 12 beds with all modern facilities, a Self contained palliative care unit complete with family room, in addition to a modern Accident & Emergency room.

We cater for acute medical admissions, frequent transfusions and accept transfers from larger facilities to accommodate the local need. Staff are encouraged to maintain up to date skills, and contribute to our ongoing passion in ensuring we provide evidence based care for the community.

Applications are being invited from Division 1 and Division 2 Nurses.

A copy of the position description and any enquiries can be directed to Wendy Rogasch, Manager Acute and Day Procedure Unit on 5484 4469.

Applications

Applications that address the key selection criteria and include a resume should be forwarded to Ali Dobson, HR Manager, P.O. Box 202, Rochester 3561, or via email to adobson@redhs.com.au. Applications close Monday 29th March 2010.
